Unman tells Stone: I haven't any news for you at all so far, but I wonder if you could perhaps call me later this week? Stone answers: OK, I call you Saturday. Unman says: I'd rather you made it Friday morning in case I go out on Saturday. Stone says: OK. Unman says: thank you very much for ringing. (S)(u)
9:27	AM	OG	G.V. Schneider B9280-6 John Stone to unman at LE5-9100 (tape). Stone asks for Mr Carney (ph), who isn't in, but is expected shortly. (S)(u)
9:30	AM	OG	G.V. Schneider B9280-8 John Stone to unman at Con Edison. Stone wants the electricity from old address cut off in Beechhurst and the account transferred to the new address at 500 E. 83rd st. The electric current is on at the apt. at 83rd st. Unman will comply with Stone's request. (S)(u)
9:35	AM	OG	G.V. Schneider B9280-12 John Stone to Jim Angleton. Jim relates that I'm told there's nothing new, and our Italian friend gets in; he's actually coming with the Pope and will be down here for lunch on OCT. 6th. If you can call me tomorrow morning, then you and I can make plans on how we get together. OK? Stone agrees. Stone asks: can you check what information you have on one man, Yuvim Friedman (sp). Maybe, you know him? Jim answers: no, and asks if Friedman is an American? Stone answers that he's an Israeli; he's the man who caught Eichmann . Jim says: I don't think this Friedman did any kidnapping at all. If he's the one I think about, he's the one who tried to get the credit for it. Stone comments that it's interesting to get the story that Jim has and maybe some other agency. Stone continues: he's "the head of the so-called International Centre for documentary of the Nazi criminals, which has their net among Jews and all in several countries. Jim agrees. Stone says: my understanding is, based on some evidence, that he can be, of course, Soviet's, and that they are using that cover practically for their purposes. I am asking what you have on him and his

Jim asks what time did you know, when you said you knew, because I think this organization goes back a long time. Stone replies that he heard about that in '59, '60. It's a well-developed group. Jim says: good. Anatole will look at it now. Stone says: he came here a few days ago, and "he" was present at that auction where Oswald letter and Eichmann letter were sold. Jim says that it's interesting. Stone continues: "he" made announcements that "he" knows the whereabouts of Martin Bormann. It's very interesting comments from him that "he" says: I know where he (Bormann) is, and it's up to Germany, England or US to take him, but they don't want to do that. "He" says: I'll keep eye on him. That's for me a little strange. Jim says: it is strange; there's no question. Stone says: because as I understand, Martin Bormann is not alive. Jim says: we think he's dead. Stone says: in that way, it's very interesting; maybe, "he" means somebody else. Jim says: I will see what we have on this. Jim asks: "he" was at the auction of the Oswald letters. Stone answers: yes, at the Hotel (name of Hotel not clear). Stone says in that way it that be interesting to detect his associates here. Jim says: if you call me tomorrow morning, maybe, we'll have news on a number of things. Stone says: OK. (S)(u)
